LYNCHBURG, Va., June 30.—Richmond had the kind of luck that has been following the team during the season, and won out this afternoon by the score of 2 to 1. If the storm which followed had come five minutes earlier the game would have gone to the Bluebirds.

In the first inning, Cowan, disputing a decision of Umpire Byron, lost his temper and struck the umpire in the face with his fist. Cowan was clearly in the wrong, and when he was fined and banished the occupants of the grandstand hissed him. The assault was the first of the kind since here this season, and Cowan would have been arrested, but Byron saved him.

Both teams played a masterly game in the field, and up until the ninth Stewart had the Lawmakers puzzled, but in the last round four hits, one of them a scratch, gave the home team runs and the game. McKenzie pitched a fine game, holding the locals to four singles, three of which Bowen secured.

In the first Bowen singled and advanced on a sacrifice. He stole third. With Wallace at the bat the signal was given for a squeeze. An McKenzie started to deliver Bowen was off. Cowan ran up and pushed Wallace aside, tagging Bowen, but he was called safe on a balk and Wallace went to first for interference. This is precisely the same play which was decided just the reverse by Gettling last Thursday when Danville won.

In the ninth, Sandherr, tapped to right on the ground. Titman scratched to Kirkpatrick and beat it out. Ison scratched to effort, filling the bases. McKenzie pitched a fine game, holding the home team to four singles, three of which Bowen secured.

TRUCKERS BAT OUT A VICTORY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., June 30.—The Truckers found Perdue an easy mark to-day, touching him up for no less than twelve safeties and winning the second game of the series by the score of 4 to 1.

Hamilton was in good form, and had the Tars guessing. Good inside work was all that prevented the score from being more one-sided in favor of Portsmouth. It was a clear case of the Crew being outclassed. The Truckers were in the game to win, showing plenty of life and go, while the Tars showed that they had given up hope of getting in the running. Star fielding stands were pulled off by Lawrence, Ruhland and Schrader. A double header is announced for to-morrow.

FRANK CHANCE

Manager of the Chicago Cubs.

BALLOTS ARE POURING IN

From Alabama, from North Carolina, from every nook and corner of Virginia, votes by the thousands for the most popular player in the Virginia League. There are many admirers in the league, but the thousands of supporters, and he whose friends work the hardest will win out, no matter how they stand to-day. Here are a few of the many letters:

Baseball Ballot Editor:
I enclose ten votes for Frank Doyle, who in my opinion is clearly entitled to be voted the most popular player in the Virginia League. Doyle has played every game since the organization of the league, and his record is a record in every city in the circuit and again. Everybody who knows baseball in Virginia knows Doyle, and will testify to the fact that he plays clean, consistent, fast ball. No umpire has ever been threatened by him. No player in short on or off the field, whether as private, captain or manager, Doyle has been a sober, reliable, trustworthy gentleman, and his record as a ball-player in the Virginia League is without a blemish.

Of course, in this contest players not members of the Richmond team will be considerably handicapped, because your circulation is so much larger in Richmond, and his record as a ball-player in the Virginia League is without a blemish. Baseball Ballot Editor:
Please count the enclosed ballots for Big Bill Bentley, of Lynchburg. I think he is the most popular player in the league, and he bats so well.

Baseball Ballot Editor:
Dear Sir,—I am a great believer in clean athletics from the standpoint of an amateur. I think that Lipe stands for the same idea from the professional's standpoint. So here are sixty votes for him, with more to follow.
